

The main aim of the Winter School is to introduce the results of a large-scale research project on the preservation of cultural heritage implemented by the Institute of Advanced Study Kőszeg (iASK) in Hungary. The Creative City - Sustainable Region project (acronym: KRAFT) explores the possibility of exploiting the intercultural heritage of historic towns for better longer term economic, political, and social conditions. Most of the case studies are from Western Hungary, Macedonia and Slovakia. New perspectives and new methodologies aimed at measuring creativity and sustainability potential will be introduced in differing geographic, ethnic, social and economic conditions. Special attention will be paid to the Kőszeg-Manhattan Project, a unique form of cooperation between students and professors from the City University of New York and their Kőszeg counterparts.

According to the principles of UNESCO MOST Schools, lectures are followed by intensive seminars moderated by experienced professors and practitioners. Participants will receive outlines of the lectures in advance and will be requested to react to specific issues of their own expertise. The results of this co-creation process will be integrated into policy proposals for public administrators and recommendations for further research projects.

PROGRAM DAILY SCHEDULE

MONDAY, 11TH FEBRUARY

14.30 OPENING PANEL - Welcome by Ferenc Miszlivetz, general director of iASK and the UNESCO representative: Miklós Réthelyi

15.00 CULTURE AND SUSTAINABILITY: International Politics and Scholarship (Miklós Réthelyi and Tamás Fejérdy), followed by Questions and Answers with two breaks

18.00 RECEPTION

20.00 SURVIVING SOUNDS OF THE PAST (Zoltán Mizsei)

TUESDAY, 12TH FEBRUARY

9.30 GLOBAL POLITICAL ASPECTS OF SUSTAINABILITY: Intercultural Encounters as an Asset and a Liability (Ilan Chabay commented by Jody Jensen)

10.30 COFFEE BREAK

11.00 SEMINAR ON THE ON THE PRECEDING LECTURE, chaired by Ilan Chabay and Jody Jensen

12.30 LUNCH

14.00 GLOBAL ENVIRONMENTAL ASPECTS OF SUSTAINABILITY, Epidemics and Water (András Szöllösi-Nagy, András Gelencsér, Daniel Brooks)

15.00 COFFEE BREAK

15.30-17.00 SEMINAR ON THE PRECEDING LECTURES chaired by Dan Brooks and commented by Sándor Kerekes on the Kőszeg-Manhattan Project and including a lecture by Dr. Yasmeen: Environmental Sustainability: Towards a sustainable world.

17.00 MIGRATION FROM CENTRAL EUROPE: Lessons learned from the 2004 EU enlargement. A Report by Miloslav Bahna

18.00 BUFFET DINNER

20.00 FILM EVENING

WEDNESDAY, 13TH FEBRUARY

9.30 VOLUNTARY RETURN MIGRATION FROM EUROPE TO AFRICA and its consequences on origin countries commented (by Augustin Nguh) and THE CIRCULAR HERITAGE: The Sustainable Role Of Historic Urban Landscapes And Their Challenges (Mario Neve)

10.30 COFFEE BREAK

10.50 SEMINAR ON THE PRECEDING LECTURES chaired by Jody Jensen and Ferenc Miszlivetz

12.30 LUNCH

14.00 LOCAL ASPECTS OF SUSTAINABILITY - KRAFT speaker: Mariann Szabó

14.45 COFFEE BREAK

15.00 SEMINAR ON THE KŐSZEG-MANHATTAN PROJECT (Anikó Magasházi, János Turáni - Student member of the project)

15.45 COFFEE BREAK

16.00-17.00 ROUND TABLE ON THE FUTURE OF UNIVERSITY: Higher Education in Transition (a UNESCO agenda) chaired by Ferenc Miszlivetz

18.30 BUFFET DINNER

THURSDAY, 14TH FEBRUARY

9.30 PARTICIPANT'S PRESENTATIONS

11.00 COFFEE BREAK

11.15 PARTICIPANTS' PRESENTATIONS

13.00 LUNCH

14.00 CONFRONTING THE CHALLENGES OF GLOBAL COMPLEXITY: Governance of complex human interactions in a planetary bio-geosphere (Sean Cleary) followed by questions and answers

15.30 COFFEE BREAK

15.45 WHICH EUROPE DO WE NEED FOR THE FUTURE? (Erhard Busek) followed by questions and answers

17.30 CONCLUSIONS OF THE SEMINAR, options for a follow-up, roundtable: Miszlivetz Ferenc, representative of the University of Pannonia and a UNESCO representative

18.00 BUFFET DINNER

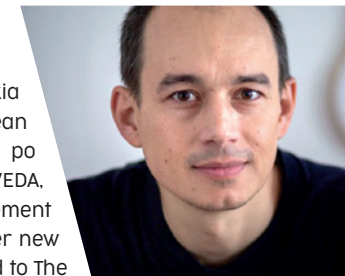

Please check our website for program updates and more information:
<https://iask.hu/en/management-of-social-transformation-most-school-in-koszeg/>

FROM THE INVITED SPEAKERS

MILOSLAV BAHNA

Slovak Committee for UNESCO MOST Programme

His book Migration from Slovakia after Accession to the European Union (Migrácia zo Slovenska po vstupe do Európskej únie) (VEDA, 2011) deals with post EU enlargement migration from Slovakia and other new EU member states. He contributed to The Encyclopedia of Global Human Migration (Wiley-Blackwell, 2013) and published in International Migration Review, Population, Space and Place, European Societies and other journals. He is co-founder of the Slovak Archive of Social Data (SASD) and currently represents Slovakia in the pan-European social science archives infrastructure CESSDA-ERIC. He is also a representative of the Institute for Sociology in the International Social Survey Programme (ISSP) currently serving in the steering committee of the research programme. Between 2011 and 2017 he was the editor of journal Sociológia - Slovak Sociological Review.

DAN BROOKS

Emeritus Professor, University of Toronto

Dan Brooks is an evolutionary biologist whose work ranges from field studies of the evolution of host-pathogen systems in tropical wildlands to foundational studies of evolutionary theory. His current focus is integrating evolutionary principles into understanding emerging disease and using those insights to develop proactive measures for coping with the emerging disease crisis. He is the author of more than 350 scientific publications, including half a dozen books. His forthcoming book is A Perfect Storm: Climate Change, Biodiversity and Emerging Disease, to be published in early 2019 by the University of Chicago Press.

INVITED LECTURERS

MILOSLAV BAHNA /// senior researcher at the Institute of Sociology of the Slovak Academy of Sciences, Slovak Committee for UNESCO MOST Program (Slovakia)

DAN BROOKS /// Emeritus Professor, University of Toronto – iASK (USA)

Erhard Busek /// Former Vice-Chancellor of Austria (Austria)

ILAN CHABAY /// Head of Strategic Science Initiatives and Programs, IASS, Arizona State University (USA)

SEAN CLEARY /// Vice Chair of the Future World Foundation, iASK IAB (South Africa)

TAMÁS FEJÉRDY /// architect, ICOMOS, Chairperson of the UNESCO's World Heritage Committee in 2002/2003 (Hungary)

ANDRÁS GELENCSÉR /// Rector, University of Pannonia (Hungary)

JODY JENSEN /// iASK, Jean Monnet Professor, University of Pannonia (USA-Hungary)

MISO KAPETANOVIC /// Researcher, iASK - University of Rijeka (Croatia)

SÁNDOR KEREKES /// Senior Researcher, iASK (Hungary)

ANIKÓ MAGASHÁZI /// Researcher, iASK (Hungary)

FERENC MISZLIVETZ /// Director, iASK, Professor, University of Pannonia (Hungary)

MARIO NEVE /// Professor of Geography, University of Bologna (Italy)

AUGUSTIN NGUH /// Researcher, iASK (Cameroon)

MIKLÓS RÉTHELYI /// Former Minister of Human Resources, Chair, Hungarian National Commission for UNESCO (Hungary)

MARIANN SZABÓ /// Researcher, iASK – KRAFT (Hungary)

ANDRÁS SZÖLLŐSI-NAGY /// Engineer, Hydrologist, Professor – Budapest University of Technology and Economics (Hungary)

DR. YASMEEN /// UNESCO Chair Fellow, University of Agricultural Sciences, Raichur (India)

SEAN CLEARY

Founder and Executive Vice Chair of the Future World Foundation

He studied social sciences and law at the University of South Africa, the University of Cape Town and Pahlavi University in Iran and holds an MBA from Henley Management College at Brunel University in the United Kingdom. He served in the South African Navy on the staff of the Commander Maritime Defence before beginning a diplomatic career in the Middle East, the United States and Namibia. He lectures on conflict resolution, the challenges of globalization and development economics at several U.S. and European universities and institutes.

JODY JENSEN

Senior Researcher, iASK, Jean Monnet Professor, University of Pannonia

Jody Jensen is a senior research fellow at the Institute of Political Sciences at the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. She is assistant professor at the University of Pannonia and director of the International Studies MA Programme at the University of Pannonia Kőszeg Campus, where she has been awarded a Jean Monnet Chair for European Solidarity and Social Cohesion (ESSCO) for 3 years beginning in the Fall of 2016. She is director of international relations at the Institute of Social and European Studies (a Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence) which she helped to found. Her areas of research at the iASK are prefigurative and subterranean politics about new social and political movements, particularly in East and Central Europe and the Balkans; looking at the conjunction of the social and natural sciences in the study of complexity as it translates to social phenomenon and change; she is also very interested in the transformation of education and the social sciences in response to global challenges.

ANIKÓ MAGASHÁZI

Researcher, Head of International Relations, iASK

Anikó Magasházi received a PhD in Economics, at the International Relations Multidisciplinary Doctoral School at Corvinus University of Budapest. She became involved in academic research following 20 years of experience in regional development and the financial sector in Hungary and Austria. Her research interests include globalization and regional development, in particular the impact of global production networks of transnational corporations on national and regional economic and social development in Central European and Southeast-Asian countries. She lectures at conferences in both regions, publishes, and participates in international research projects in collaboration with Visegrad countries.

AUGUSTIN NGUH

Researcher, iASK

Augustin Nguh is a recent graduate of the International Relations MA program at the University of Pannonia Kőszeg Campus. He also holds a LL.M in International Human Rights Law and International Humanitarian Law from the University of the Western Cape in South Africa. He has worked for various organizations and law firms in Africa and Europe in the capacity of research fellow and independent consultant. His research interests include human rights, international humanitarian law, international criminal law, migration, and indigenous peoples' rights.

INTERCULTURAL HERITAGE AND THE COMPLEXITY OF SUSTAINABILITY

UNESCO MOST Winter School

A FUTURE ORIENTED CENTRAL EUROPEAN APPROACH
KŐSZEG, HUNGARY, 11-14 FEBRUARY 2019

